

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

I Do Not Remember.

I do not remember the hour or the day, Or whether the month was June or was May,
Or what in the world was befalling: I only remember I listening stood In the clover field, close by the sheltering wood,
When I heard my sweetheart calling.

I do not know whether the far skies were fair
And serene, or the storm-clouds were gathering there,
With thunder sounds low and appalling: But I know that I heard the low hum of the bees,
And the south wind caressing the leaves of the trees,
Then the sound of her swift feet falling.

I do not know whether "The story of old,"
By my trembling lips was then fittingly told,
To write on her heart's white pages;
But I know that the answer, so soft, I heard Set my heart like a happy and care-free bird
To singing the Hymn of the Ages.

I do not remember the words that we said,
Or whether the sun or the stars shone overhead,
So fondly our hearts were burning;
But I know that no light in the earth or skies Shone as sweet as the light in her own dear eyes,
As homeward our steps were turning.

O VER the shoulder and slopes of the dune I saw the white daisies go down to the sea, A host in the sunshine an army in June,
The people God sends us to set our hearts free.
The bobolinks rallied them up from the dell, The orioles whistled them out of the wood;
And all of their saying was, "Earth, it is well!"
And all of their dancing was, "Life, thou art good!"

Within the next few days the Aldermen of depends on the action they take. Mr.

Haines says if the road is built, work of grading will commence very soon now.

petition from Adams' counsel for com-them to be in a good condition for the most part. Progress and improvement seems to have been made along all lines, and pastors are very much encouraged.

Dr. George H. Ray, chairman of the Committee on Education, offered resolutions, which were adopted, congratulating the church that the Randolph-Macon system has been in the forefront of the movement to improve the school facili-its own school. Further resolutions were adopted on record the appreciation of the conference of the noble gift by John P.

Branch of $30,000 to Randolph-Macon.

River Company, which was recently organized ever seen in this section. The machine has a capacity of twenty miles per hour with the sixteen passengers.

The cable, which is a steel wire, is being laid without a pulley for several weeks, is re-laid at the information that Rev. J. M. Dunaway, of Salisbury, has accepted a call to leave at large. The cable will be laid at once by the use of a derrick, which is to be ready for the new pastor, who will enter upon his duties by October 1st.

cumstances that his most illustrious hoped that the German Emperor will be

GREAT REUNION
IN PETERSBURG

The Battle of the Crater to Be Fought Again By the Veterans.

THE BEST MEETING YET

Contract is Awarded for Street Work—Struck By a Rifle Ball.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 26.—The Purchasing Committee of the Councils today awarded the contract for digging trenches in the streets for the laying of water main to Messrs. Perkins and Friend.
The contract calls not only for the digging, but the refilling of the trenches and repairing of the streets. About two miles of mains are to be laid, and there were a number of bidders for the work.
The Georgia veterans will arrive in Petersburg from Richmond about 8 o'clock to-morrow morning, and will be met at the depot by A. P. Hill Camp and escorted to the latter's hall on Tabb Street, where a formal welcome and reception will be extended. During the day the veterans will be taken out to the battle field around the city, over which the old veterans fought in the ever memorable years of 1864-65. The visitors will leave for their homes to-morrow night, but while here will have the freedom of the city and all the courtesies that can be extended them. They will carry home with them a cordial invitation to revisit our city in October next on the occasion of the great Confederate reunion to be held here, and to participate in the three days of festivities that are being arranged.
The grand feature of the reunion will be the sham battle of the Crater, a practical reproduction of that famous battle, including the mine explosion and infantry charges, and everything else except the fearful slaughter of that historic day.
THE CAMPS NOTIFIED.
In this connection it may be stated that Grand Commander W. E. Harwood, of this city, has just sent out to the commanders of the various Confederate camps of the State a general order asking that the camps be notified of the meeting of the Grand Camp on the 25th of October, and that they take timely action in the appointment of delegates and alternates.
On the recommendation of the various district inspectors the grand commander will appoint one sponsor and one maid of honor to represent each Congressional District at the Grand Camp, and will appoint also a sponsor and maid of honor for the State at large.
The Grand Camp reunion will be the greatest in the history of that body, and thousands of veterans will be present, including many organizations from other States. The Governors of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama will be invited to accompany their veteran organizations to the Crater City.

A SERIOUS MISHAP.
Timothy Cannon, an employee of the Street Department, was the victim of a serious injury, the result of the careless handling of firearms. Last evening while at work on Little Church Street, in Blandford, he was struck in the back by a stray ball shot from somebody's rifle.
It is not as yet known whose rifle the ball passed into the cavity of the body, and probing has failed to locate it. It is supposed that the ball came from the rifle of a party of boys who were shooting in the neighborhood.

At their meeting last night Petersburg Aerie of Eagles received about twenty-five new members and acted on the applications for membership of as many more.
The Petersburg Grays, Captain Parham, will go into summer encampment at Base City August 23d.
The new board of overseers of the poor will meet to organize to-morrow, and elect a physician to the poor, for which position there are several applicants.

A little son of Mr. H. W. Fowler got a bug in his ear last evening, which for a while caused great pain and some bleeding.

A NEGRO ATTEMPTS
CRIMINAL ASSAULT
Captured and Jailed After Talk of Lynching Had Been Heard.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 26.—Ed. Hall, a young negro, made a desperate attempt to commit criminal assault upon Mrs.
Mack Austin, the young wife of a farmer, at her home four miles southeast of the city this morning. Hall afterwards made his escape, and with a hundred men on his trail eluded capture until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when he was arrested at Pineville, this county, and safely landed in jail here. There was some talk of lynching this morning, but this has quieted down, and the authorities apprehend no trouble.

The outrage was committed at about 9:30 o'clock. The negro, who is employed in the city as a driver at Austin's meat market, was sent to Mr. Austin's home after some meat. He was half drunk, upon some slight pretext, he went into the house and asked Mrs. Austin to phone to town for him. As she complied and was turned with her face to the phone, the negro threw his arms around her. The woman screamed loudly and put forth efforts to free herself, but the negro did not desist.
Mrs. Austin continued her cries of help and was aided by a Mr. Beatty, who was working near by. As Mr. Beatty started toward the house, the negro ran.
Mrs. Austin was found on the floor, half fainting. Her clothes were badly torn and there were several bruises on her arm and body.
